

TIM CORCORAN

AFFILIATION: Redlands Arbitration and Mediation Services Inc.

LOCATION: Inland Empire

RATE: $320/hour

SPECIALTY: Injury and death claims, commercial, real estate and contractual disputes

RECENT CASES: The toughest cases Corcoran cracked this year were not synonymous with the biggest settlement he helped ink. One was the case of a sub-contractor who fell 30 feet off a roof and rang up huge costs in workers' compensation. It eventually settled after several mediator proposals involving multiple layers of insurance. Corcoran settled an especially emotional case of two childhood pals whose friendship splintered after a role play game ended in violence. One punched the other so hard he lost teeth and sustained a serious head injury. Corcoran settled the four-year dispute by getting them to shake hands for the first time.

BACKGROUND: Senior associate at Thompson & Colegate, judicial arbitration for San Bernadino and Riverside county courts

FACT: Corcoran is a former Ironman triathlete who competed in several Southern California races along side his wife.
