

Representative Cases for Jay Cordell Horton

- 1) Failure to timely diagnose and treat bowel obstruction in toddler resulting loss of bowel and need for lifetime intravenous feeding. Settled for $10 million; another at $8.85mil.
- 2) Post partum bleeding complication in mother after vaginal delivery of triplets resulting in hypovolemia and brain damage. Settled for $7.6 mil
- 3) Failure to repond to fetal distress in various (>12) cases resulting in hypoxic encephalopathy and various degrees of residual brain damage. Settlements ranging from $1.2 to $4.5 million.
- 4) Failure to diagnose cancer leading to metastases and terminal illness in > 12 cases resulting in settlements ranging from $450,000 to $2.5 million.