

Judicate West Welcomes Judge Emily E. Vasquez in Sacramento

SACRAMENTO, CA, November 1, 2022 - Judicate West, one of California's leading providers of private dispute resolution services, has added Judge Emily E. Vasquez, formerly of the Sacramento County Superior Court, to its roster of neutrals. Based in the Sacramento office, she is available as a mediator, arbitrator and private judge for matters statewide.

Judge Vasquez has more than 44 years of legal experience, highlighted by 20 years on the Sacramento County Superior Court Bench. During her tenure, she presided over a general trial department that encompassed criminal and civil jury trials, bench trials and preliminary hearings, and complex civil litigation.

Prior to her appointment in 2001, Judge Vasquez practiced with the nonprofit legal services provider California Rural Legal Assistance and various government organizations, including the Fair Employment and Housing Commission, the Public Employment Relations Board and the Sacramento County Public Defender. She was appointed twice to the Judicial Council's Court Technology Advisory Committee (CTAC), serving as co-chair of the CTAC Outreach Subcommittee and authoring important standards on how court technology can help litigants through the court system. Judge Vasquez was also a shareholder at Kronick Moskowitz Tiedemann & Girard, litigating a variety of matters, with a specialty in labor and employment law in state and federal court.

Judge Vasquez is fluent in both English and Spanish. She received her J.D. from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law (1977) and her B.A. from the University of California, Davis (1974).
