LOS ANGELES, CA—Judicate West, one of California's leading providers of private dispute resolution services, has added Judge Mark V. Mooney, formerly of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, to its roster of neutrals. Based in the Los Angeles office, he is available as a mediator, arbitrator and private judge for matters statewide.

Judge Mooney served more than 27 years on the bench, originally appointed in 1995 by then-Gov. Pete Wilson to the Los Angeles Municipal Court before being elevated to the Superior Court bench in 1998. He began his legal career litigating a variety of matters at civil trial law firms specializing in medical malpractice, and immediately prior to his appointment, he was an assistant U.S. Attorney for the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Central District of California.

In 2019, Judge Mooney was named "Judge of the Year" by the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), Los Angeles chapter, and in 2010, he was honored as "Trial Judge of the Year" by the Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles (CAALA).

He received his J.D. from the Southern Methodist University School of Law (1981) and his B.A. from the University of Southern California (1978).
